

ISLE OF COLL MEET

23rd to 26th August 2024 - 3 nights

The Isle of Coll is a holiday destination for those seeking peace and quiet and for those who enjoy nature and the beauty of the Hebrides. It boasts 30 beaches so you're bound to find one to yourself. The island is ideal for exploring by bicycle and there is the option of hiring from the Cridhe Centre. More information can be found about the island on www.visitcoll.co.uk

The bunkhouse (www.collbunkhouse.com) is situated at Arinagour where the ferry comes in from Oban. It is an ideal central location for exploring the island which is approx. 13 miles long and 3 miles at its widest point. Arinagour has a shop for supplies; the popular Coll Hotel and a café, allowing the option to eat out during the weekend. The bunkhouse can sleep up to 14 people in 3 rooms. These are made up as follows:

- 1 room with bunk beds (6 persons).
- 1 room with one double bed and single above (3 persons).
- 1 room with one double bed and single above + bunk beds (5 persons).

There is also the facility for 4 campervans to be parked up in a designated area beside the Cridhe Community Centre, where showers / toilets are available (this is also beside the bunkhouse). Unfortunately, there are no facilities in the area for tents.

I am estimating that the cost for the weekend will in the region of £90 per person, subject to our final numbers. The cost will be split equally between those in the bunkhouse and those in campervans. I will require a deposit of £20 per person at this stage with the balance due one month before arrival.
